I can recognise food and their different food groups.

I can compare and contrast what settlements and farms were like over time.

and order them on a 11 11

artwork.

timeline.

I can find out where dairy products come from.

I can explain why the weather in Devon makes it a good place for dairy farming.

Design and make a healthy pizza ingredients. I can sort images of farming then and now

I can select balanced combinations of

Learn about farming in the past.

I can compare jobs on the farm then and now.

I can identify and categorise fruit and vegetables sold at a high street greengrocer, their cost and whether they are locally produced, UK grown or imported;

Find out where in the world my food comes from

I can plan and design a healthy wellbalanced recipe for a rainbow pizza.

I can create and reflect on how well I made my pizza and whether the taste is well balanced with the ingredients.

I can record my observations in a weather

diary, recounting the weather I observe.

I can observe and describe weather associated with different seasons and find out what happens to nature.

2025

Oak Class Autumn

I can identify and describe the main stages in the harvesting, packaging and export of bananas from Costa Rica to the UK.

I can describe how cheese is manufactured on one Devon farm and how it is exported. I can learn how to churn my own cheese.

I can carry out simple tests to measure the wind, rainfall and temperature.

I can explore how art can be made in different ways.

Set up a weather

station and make a weather weaving

I can practise wool wrapping by measuring, arranging and fixing materials.

I can explore plaiting, threading and knotting techniques.

From Farm to Fork

I can learn to weave and combine the techniques I've learnt in a woven

I can identify and name a variety of common animals that are carnivores, herbivores and omnivores.

Find out more about

I can describe how animals obtain their identify and name different sources of the idea of a simple food chain, and food from plants and other animals, using farm animals

I can describe and compare the structure of a variety of common animals.

food.

I can notice that animals, including humans, have offspring which grow into adults.