20minutes Geography homework

This term we have been learning all about volcanoes and in particular those in Iceland and the affect they have on those who live there. For homework this week please choose one active volcano from anywhere in the world to research in more depth. We will be sharing these in our Geography lesson on Thursday 28th March.

Se the sheet attached. Printed versions are available in school

Name of the volcano:

How high is it?

Where is the volcano located?

Which continent is it in?

When did it last erupt? How often does it erupt?

What type of volcano is it?

Shield

Composite(Cone/Stratovolcano)

Dome

Do people visit the volcano for tourism?

Any other interesting facts?
