This week in P.S.H.E we talked about diversity. We looked at similarities and difference between ourselves and within our world. We used the book 'It's okay to be different' to discuss how we can celebrate differences rather than feel worried about this or show prejudices.

Please read the book and then choose 4 'differences'; which you feel are important to you either from the book or your own e.g it's okay to be kind, it's okay to have different hair colour, it's okay to live with your grandparents etc Then write it and draw it in the style of the book.

Here is the book:
