Spellings

This week we have looked at apostrophes for contraction and possession.

Go on an apostrophes hunt in your books.

Find 10 examples of apostrophes for contraction and 10 for possession.

Explain what they mean. E.g can't = cannot Fred's glasses = the glasses belong to Fred

Apostrophes

Contraction
When letters are missed out of words
do not = don't
I will = I'll

Possession
If an object belongs to someone
Toby's jumper
Sarah's dogs

If your apostrophe isn't doing one of these things, you don't need it!

Task 1:

- Set a 1 minute timer. Read the text aloud. See how far you can read in that time.
- Then repeat reading it aloud three times. How does your expression change? Remember to look for the punctuation marks to show you when to pause.
- Make sure you then read it aloud to your parents to show them your fluency skills.

Diary Entry - 22nd January, 1873

I have been captive for what feels like an eternity. These ruthless bandits seized me while I was traveling, dragging me to this desolate hut deep in the jungle. They speak in harsh, foreign tongues and I can only pray for my safety. Every night, I lie awake fearing the worst. My thoughts often wander to a rescue. Will anyone find me? Who will risk everything to save me? I despair because I do not know how I will survive this.

The days are unbearably long, the heat oppressive and the fear constant. Yet, I hold on to hope. I cling to the belief that rescue is near and my life is not yet over.

— Aouda

Task 2:

Find out the definition of the following words. Then write a sentence for each one.

- Unbearably
- Desolate
- ruthless

Task 3:

Write your own 100 word story about Aouda and her capture or escape.
